

Solicitation and Canvassing in the Library

Soliciting

The sale or distribution of, among other things, merchandise, sales materials, tickets, insurance, coupons, subscriptions, political or other organizational campaign materials for specific candidates, private employment advertisements, or petitions.

Canvassing

Petitioning, distributing written materials, or soliciting for political, charitable, or religious purposes.

Limitations and Liabilities of Soliciting and Canvassing

1. Soliciting and canvassing of the public or Library staff is not permitted at the Merrimack Public Library or on Library property.
2. Any person or group who does not abide by the conditions stated above or disrupts the regular business of the Library shall be required to immediately cease all activities and leave the Library premises.
3. Exceptions may be made as the discretion of the Library Director on a case-by-case basis for fundraisers sponsored by the Friends of the Library, local schools, or non-profit organizations with which the Library works closely.
